

Freight Shipping Specialist Q Ship USA Announces Attendance at 2014 Kosherfest Tradeshow

New York, NY, November 6, 2014 -- Q Ship USA, a shipping broker coordinating freight shipping nationwide, is now announcing its participation in Kosherfest, where the company will be in attendance as an exhibitor. At the annual B2B tradeshow, Q Ship USA will introduce the kosher community's leading businesses to innovative and customized shipping strategies.

"Kosherfest is simply the most important tradeshow for businesses in the kosher industry, attracting a diverse community of attendees who share a common goal: growing their businesses and showcasing their latest products. At Q Ship USA, we're here to help every company achieve that goal by finding the best ways to move products into new markets. As a shipping broker, we help every client chart a path to greater success. This Kosherfest, we're ready to help attendees cut costs, blaze trails, and discover opportunity," said Charles Kohn, President and CEO of Q Ship USA.

As a shipping brokerage company, Q Ship USA leverages its expertise in the shipping market to match each client business to the most appropriate freight shipping company. Q Ship USA's professional team conducts the necessary research, carries out negotiations, and ensures that the shipping company can meet the client's needs at the best available price. Q Ship USA serves as a guide to the shipping industry, leading each client in business decisions through unparalleled familiarity with the field. As a dedicated advocate, key logistics resource, and partner in success for every client business, Q Ship USA brings a unique networking opportunity to this year's Kosherfest tradeshow.

Company representatives at Kosherfest can introduce attendees to a wide range of specialty shipping options ideal for food service businesses, including provisions for refrigerated and frozen loads. In addition to its on-site presence, Q Ship USA maintains a wealth of online resources detailing the many options its customers can select as the company builds shipping plans. From expedited shipping to truckloads, LTL, rail, intermodal, and more, Q Ship USA searches the industry for everything a client might need and delivers reliable shipping on a conservative budget.
